Come celebrate Peekskill Arts Alliance's 23rd Open Studios! After two long years, Peekskill artists are re-opening their studios to visitors to experience, explore and engage in conversation. Our galleries display jewelry, painting, pottery, photography, film, sculpture, and multimedia work.

Open Studios is our trademark annual event where the Peekskill arts community welcomes art lovers, collectors and the general public into their private workspaces. Come see works-in-progress and talk to individual artists about their creative inspirations and methods.

Walk around the pop-up shows at PAA's Tent Site Gallery where individual artists display a body of work. The many galleries in downtown Peekskill include The Flat Iron Gallery, The Third Eye Gallery, The Artist Spot, Peekskill Artists' Co-op, and The Artist Lofts on Main. See Peekskill Clay Studios and the exhibit at PranaMoon Yoga located in the Hat Factory just outside the downtown area. Check out the exhibits at Westchester Community College "Off the Beaten Track" (a PAA show), The Field Library, Peekskill Coffee House, BeanRunner Café, and Hudson Valley MOCA. Also at Hudson Valley MOCA is Studio Theater in Exile with performance in video with a multimedia component.

All exhibitions are free for Open Studios.

Visitors can go to the Gazebo on Division and Park Streets to pick up a complimentary catalog containing information on participating artists and a map highlighting all the Open Studio attractions. Online versions of the catalog and map will also be available on our website so traveling around Peekskill is as easy as using your smartphone.

Parking is free on the weekends.
